

HOPEWELL CEMETERY

HOMER H. IRWIN
1971

The numbering of these rows has been scrubbed up by the addition of a few graves in the front corner. (People think they can't find any graves without Row #.)

For a 180 yr. old cemetery it's in rather good shape. One reason I want to go to Israel Top. is to inventory the "new sections".

The Hopewell Cemetery has two entrance drives running approximately east and west, one on the north side of the church building, and one on the south side of the building. The section of the cemetery which has most of the older burials is north of the north drive, and is often designated as the OLD section. The part of the cemetery which is west of the church building, and between the two drives was seldom used for the older
